

I support K-LOVE, finding it to provide enjoyable music and uplifting commentary throughout my day and evening. Should this programming be lost, music with more negative and damaging messages may be aired. This would tragically affect not only the youth of Western Ohio, but many adults as well. This listener-supported programming is heard throughout the US, offering hope, and opportunities for prayer and support not otherwise available on the radio.